

Writing on Textile Products

The Sanford Inc. “Sharpie” and Marks-a-Lot that meet the ASTM D-4236 standard have been approved by MSA for writing on textile products. This marker uses an alcohol-based dye, which will not affect the strength of nylon or polyester material. When writing on harnesses or lanyards, you must make certain that manufacturer labels and markings are not obscured by the marks made on the equipment.

