Notes:

- If using the G1 Facepiece with CBRN canister, the G1 CBRN noseclip must be installed (part numbers below)
- The standard G1 Facepiece noseclip is not approved for CBRN applications and the CBRN noseclip is not approved for use in a traditional firefighting situation.
- For fit testing, install the CBRN noseclip for the quantitative fit test if you plan to use the G1 Facepiece in both a traditional fire fighting situation and a CBRN APR environment.
- * The Advantage 4000 mask is not approved for use with any CBRN or Riot Control canisters.
